Church Purpose

In Response to God's love, Our purpose is to love others, Teach the Word of God, and Reach the world for Christ. Therefore, as a Covenant Partner, I will be a part of a small group bible fellowship to grow in Christ. I will serve in the ministry with my gifts and talents. I will do my part in faithfully giving my tithes and offerings to keep the ministry of Jesus Christ alive in the World. I will love all those who enter our doors and accept them in our midst.

Advent Candle lighting Liturgy

First Sunday in Advent

(Kamilah Williams & Kalilah Williams-Daniels)

Reader: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness -- on them light has shined... For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."
(Isaiah 9:2, 6)

Reader: Today we remember the prophets of old, who demanded to be heard, who dared to speak of a child to come, unexpected liberator of the people, vulnerable incarnation of the Holiest of Holies, a new name for God.

People: Today we give thanks for the prophets among us, who bring to us surprising new visions of hope, who challenge us to think outside the box, who show us a future we never anticipated.

Reader: On this first Sunday of Advent, we light this candle as a symbol of the prophets who renew our faith and remind us of what may be.

(Light a purple candle)

"Light the Advent Candle"

Light the Advent candle, one: Now the waiting has begun; We have started on our way, Time to think of Christmas Day.

Candle, candle, burning bright, shining in the cold winter night; Candle, candle, burning bright, fill our hearts with Christmas light.

Grateful by Hezekiah Walker

I am
Grateful for the things
That you have done
Yes, I'm grateful for the
Victories we've won
I could go on and on and on
About the works
Because I'm grateful, grateful, so grateful
Just to praise you Lord
Flowing from my heart
Are the issues of my heart
Is Gratefulness

I am
Grateful for the things
That you have done
Yes, I'm grateful for the
Victories we've won
I could go on and on and on
About the works
Because I'm grateful, grateful, so grateful
Just to praise you Lord
Flowing from my heart
Are the issues of my heart
Is Gratefulness

Grateful, Grateful, Grateful, Grateful,
Grateful, Grateful Grateful

Grateful, Grateful, Grateful, Grateful
Gratefulness is flowing from my heart.

Announcements

Attention: Please refrain from walking during these times: Prayer, Soloist, Scripture and Sermon. Thank you.

If you would like to donate a poinsettia in honor/memory of a love one. Sign-up forms are in the foyer. The donations are $8.00 per poinsettia. Names will be listed in the Christmas Bulletin.

Thanks

Thank you, to this past Tuesday's cleaning crew: Helen Britt, Barbara Lowry, Renee Pride, and Lenny Gray. Christmas Decoration Ruby Turner. We appreciate the time that you spent helping with the upkeep of our church.

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the volunteers who helped serve over 100 meals at our special Thanksgiving Hot Meal dinner. Whether you contributed by checking our guests in, donating, shopping, singing, setting up, cooking, serving, or cleaning up, your efforts are sincerely appreciated. The meal featured traditional Thanksgiving dishes, along with special items provided by The River of Life Church. The evening included singing, personal testimonies, fellowship, and plenty of delicious food. We could not have accomplished this without your support. Once again, thank you!

Christmas Shopping at New Life At Calvary:
The Women's Guild Christmas Event, today
Sunday, December 7th from 11:30am-2:30pm in the gym. All proceeds will go to the New Life At Calvary Building On Faith Restoration Campaign. Other vendors will also be available. Support our small business owners at New Life At Calvary this holiday season.

Cleaning Help Volunteers

Greetings NLAC Family, we need your help! After the sudden and tragic loss of our staff member, Reginald Woods, we are missing a part of our cleaning staff. While our Personnel Committee works on hiring a new custodian, we are setting up a Volunteer Clean-Up Day on Tuesdays from 10:00 am – 12:00 pm.

We are asking for just 2 hours a week to help with cleaning and sanitizing our restrooms, kitchen, fellowship hall, and gym. Tasks will include sweeping, mopping, cleaning tables and chairs, dusting, and washing windows.

Our first clean-up day will be on Tuesday, September 23, 2025. We hope you can join us in keeping God's house clean!

Repast Committee

We are forming a Repast Committee to assist with meals after funerals. Members of this committee will help ensure that food is prepared or provided, families are served with care, and clean-up/set-up runs smoothly.

This committee will be activated in the event of a loss where the repast meal is hosted at NLAC.

If you are interested in serving, please sign the sign-up sheet in the foyer. Meeting dates will be announced soon.

Hospitality Committee

The Hospitality Committee is returning! The role of this committee is to provide refreshments on Sundays after service. Responsibilities include making coffee, putting out refreshments, and handling set-up and clean-up. If you are already serving in this role or would like to join, please sign the sign-up sheet in the foyer. Meetings will be announced soon so we can stay organized and ready to serve.

What Is Advent?

History and Meaning

Advent is the season of reflective preparation for Christ's Nativity at Christmas and Christ's expected return in the Second Coming. It starts Sunday, December 3rd and ends Sunday, December 24th, Christmas Eve. Some people may know that the Advent season focuses on expectation and think it serves as an anticipation of Christ's birth in the season leading up to Christmas. This is part of the story, but there's more to Advent.

The word "Advent" is derived from the Latin word adventus, meaning "coming." By the 6th century, Roman Christians had tied Advent to the coming of Christ. But the "coming" they had in mind was not Christ's first coming in the manger in Bethlehem, but his second coming in the clouds as the judge of the world.

Prayer for Hope

Heavenly Father,

When the days feel heavy and the path ahead seems unclear,
remind me that Your light still shines in the shadows.

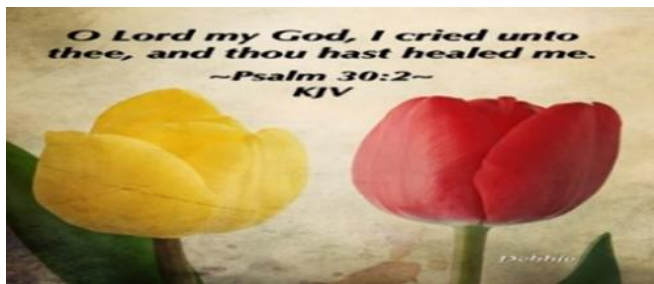

Plant in my heart the seed of hope that grows even in dry seasons.

Help me trust that every trial has its purpose, and that Your plans for me are filled with goodness and peace.

Lift my eyes above my fears,
and let my spirit rest in the promise that I am never alone.

May hope be my anchor,
and Your love my constant guide.

Amen

Please send a card, call, pray for, and support our Sick and Shut ins and recuperating brothers and sisters in Christ. Thank you.

Celebrating the 96th Birthday of Sarah L. Williams

Sarah L. Williams was born on December 1, 1929, in Darwin, Mississippi. She was born to a teenage mother and was adopted by her aunt and uncle, Margaret & John Lunard. Sarah was the first grandchild of her grandparents, James and Sarah Ann Betts. She was dearly loved by her grandparents and spent many years on their farm as a child. Her grandfather owned his land, and her grandmother was a midwife. Sarah has many great memories of growing up on the farm. Sarah's parents lived in Toledo, Ohio, she grew up going to Toledo schools. She met and married her husband, Percy Williams. They lived in Cleveland and raised their 6 children. Percy, Margaret, Joyce, Rosa, David, and Danny. Sadly, they lost their son, David in a tragic accident, when he was 7 years old. Although devastated by David's loss, the family persevered with their faith, family, and friends.

Sarah attended beauty school, she enjoyed doing hair, especially little girls. She also held a job at the US Post Office. Her final job, when she was 62 years old, was at the Cleveland Art Museum, where she traveled out of state to many events with other museums. Sarah and her husband were Charter Members of the newly formed Glenville New Life Community Church. The original Glenville Presbyterian Church had closed, because of the influx of African Americans from the south into the neighborhood. The Presbytery of the Western Reserve decided to re-open the church in 1962 under the leadership of Rev. David Zuverink. Sarah and Percy were there when Zuverink was ordained and installed. Sarah said, "I enjoyed the neighborhood because, I came from a mixed neighborhood, we had English and German, everyone worked together." Sarah also remembers that when she moved to Glenville, she couldn't understand that most of the black people went to Central High School. It was more segregated in Cleveland; she didn't understand that.

Sarah says, "I remember my son, went to school and noticed that the curriculum was different, I complained to the Euclid Church of the Covenant Pastor. We protested the school board. They fired the superintendent. Then the white families left, they moved and went to private schools. It was two school systems in Cleveland. I never could understand that. Segregation never made sense." Sarah was among the families that welcomed Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. to Cleveland. She and other members had breakfast with him at a local restaurant.

Some other Sarah memories, "I've always liked to read; my grandmother told me that knowledge was written in books so read all you can." "I planned to live a long life; my great grandmother lived to be 113 so I said I'm going to live to be 100." Finally, Sarah's life advice: "Put God First. All lessons come from Him. Read your bible. Be kind to everybody. Go to Sunday School." Sarah has lived in Toledo with her daughter Rosa, since retirement. She became a Charter Member of New Life At Calvary in 2013, with the merger. She remains the longest living Charter Member of the former Glenville New Life Community Church. She is a dedicated member of our church. She loves the Lord and enjoys studying the word of God. We celebrate with Sarah! Happy 95th Birthday!

Celebrating the 91st Birthday of Billie Brown

Billie Brown, was born on December 2, 1934 in Bluefield, West Virginia to Patti and William Carmichael. She was an only child. She was baptized at 1st Baptist Church in Bluefield at around 11 or 12. She then moved to Roanoke, Virginia. There she attended John Stewart Methodist Church. She attended Park Central High School and then went on to West Virginia State University, where she met her husband, Stanley Brown.

Stanley and Billie were married for 46 years. Their secret she said was that they were good friends, talked things out with each other, and talked things out with their girls, Patti and Stanette. At West Virginia State University, WVU, Billie studied Elementary Education. She decided to be a teacher because there were a lot of teachers in her family. As a freshman at WVU, Billie became a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. She has been a member since 1952, a total of 72 years! She has been a Golden Member, a 50-year member, for some time now. She mostly enjoys the sisterhood and is still active. She meets with the RAKA's, Retired AKA's. Her daughter Patti was also a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Stanley was a member of Omega Psi Phi. At WVU, Billie was also a part of the Acapella Choir. She sang Alto. They travelled from state to state. Because of the times, with segregation, she and her choir always had arrangements to stay with Alumni. They never stayed at a hotel.

Billie went on to study at John Carroll University in University Heights, Ohio. She received a Master's Degree in Reading. Billie was a teacher for 31 years. She first taught at Miles Standish Elementary School and then at Adlai Stevenson.

Billie and Stanley have attended Glenville New Life Community Church since the 1960's. Stanley was an Elder and Billie was ushered and sang. They were both members of Glenville New Life Community Church and Billie is currently a part of New Life At Calvary. She currently enjoys spending time with her daughter Stanette, being a part of her AKA chapter, reading and doing crosswords. Her favorite book is "Five Smooth Stones." Before the pandemic, she was on a bowling league and never missed Monday night bowling. This December 2nd, Billie will be 90 years old!

Happy 90th Birthday Billie Brown, from you New Life At Calvary Family!

Pledge Card for support of the 2nd Milestone of the Building On Faith Capital Campaign of New Life At Calvary Cleveland, OH

A Capital Campaign is how we fund the future of New Life At Calvary. It challenges us to reach higher and dig deeper in order to meet the immediate and long-term needs of the church and the community. Like annual giving, giving to a Capital Campaign enhances the mission and ministry of the church through renovation and improvement of our church building.

Giving to the Capital Campaign is considered sacrificial giving. It does not come from our daily living expenses. Capital Campaign giving can be spread out over a three-year period to allow donors to manage their gifts according to their needs.

I/We pledge in faith to support the 2nd Milestone of the Capital Campaign of New Life At Calvary listed by making the financial contribution listed below:
